Alumni Society Outstanding Advising Award
Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences

Purpose

The Outstanding Advising Award is to recognize faculty of Bumpers College who have made notable and outstanding contributions to the advisement of undergraduate students. Advising includes academic advising, advising student organizations and facilitating student activities. This award recognizes individual faculty members who have had a positive impact on students' development.

Scope

Any faculty member in Bumpers College who advises undergraduate students and/or organizations may be nominated for this award. Faculty who have received this award within the past five years are not eligible.

Policy

Process of Nomination

- Nomination: A faculty member may be nominated for the Outstanding Advising Award by any academic department or unit, faculty member, student, or student organization of Bumpers College.
- Length of Nomination: The nomination has a maximum of three pages (single spaced) plus appended materials (letters or supporting documents). Nominations exceeding the three pages (for items 1-5 below) will not have excess materials considered.
- The deadline for nomination materials to be submitted will be announced each spring by the Office of the Dean or the appropriate Senior Associate Vice President.
- Resubmissions with a current nomination letter are acceptable for a period of three years (the initial submission plus two subsequent years).

Nomination Packet and Selection Criteria

The following items will be used as criteria for evaluation and selection of the awardee and should be included in the nomination packet.

1. A brief vitae that highlights advising activities and includes a listing of academic training and date of appointments at the University of Arkansas.
2. A statement of advising or mentoring philosophies and how those beliefs are implemented with students.
3. A description of innovations or successful implementation of advising strategies.
4. A description of advising load by year. This information should include academic and student organization advising, participation in extra-curricular student activities and student retention efforts.
